

SENATE RESOLUTION 98

By Roberts

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of David McCullough of Kingston Springs.

WHEREAS, the members of this legislative body were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of David McCullough; and

WHEREAS, David McCullough was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, David McCullough served with acumen and alacrity as mayor of Cheatham County; as mayor, he was a guiding force in thinking of the needs of all Cheatham County residents and represented the values, personality, and energy that reflect the best in public leadership; and

WHEREAS, Mayor McCullough also served on the board for WorkForce Essentials, a nonprofit organization in Middle and West Tennessee that works with job applicants and employers in multiple ways; David McCullough's vision was to provide a place where all Cheatham County residents could obtain assistance to improve their lives and achieve their dreams; and

WHEREAS, prior to his service as mayor, Mr. McCullough served with distinction as an employee of the Regional Transportation Authority and the Cheatham County Rail Authority; and

WHEREAS, Mayor McCullough was an active and devout member of Cedar Hill Church, which he served faithfully for many years as senior pastor; and

WHEREAS, David McCullough was also deeply devoted to his family, and he always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, David McCullough enjoyed the loving companionship of his wife, Megan Spruill McCullough, and was the proud father of two daughters: Emma McCullough and Elizabeth (Andrew) Strunk. He was also the doting grandfather of three grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Mayor David McCullough leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this legislative body should pause to remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED TENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor the memory of David McCullough, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. McCullough.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
